New Norfolk Parish Records

TheGenealogist has just added over 500,000 individuals in a new release of Norfolk Parish Records with images of the original records in association with the Norfolk Record Office. TheGenealogist has transcribed them so that they are fully searchable by name and place.

Caister Church, Norfolk

These East Anglian records feature the registers of baptisms, marriages and burials covering various parishes in Norfolk, allowing family history researchers from all over the world to search for their Norfolk ancestors online.

This release of new records accessible with TheGenealogist's Diamond subscription includes 330,000 individuals from baptisms, 100,000 from marriages and 95,000 from burial records.

- Search by name the transcripts linked to the original images
- Uncover the dates for baptisms, marriages and burial events
- Discover names of family members and in some cases occupations
- Some of the surviving records stretch back into the 1500s

TheGenealogist's release has added new records for Norfolk parishes which include baptisms, marriages, and burial records adding to millions of existing parish records for this area and tens of millions of parish records for other counties.
